

DUCE TO SEVEN TRIPLE DRAW

1. The Deuce to Seven (2-7) Triple Draw Poker must be played according to the following rules:
  - A. The dealer must deal sequentially to each player five (5) cards face downward.
  - B. Player to the immediate left of the player with the button opens.
  - C. After the initial betting round, the players must either retain their pat hands or discard. The player may discard up to four (4) cards that are placed in the discard pile.
  - D. Players who discard are dealt a new card face downward for each card discarded. Player's newly dealt cards are received at the same time as cards are discarded.
  - E. There is the second betting round following this first round of draws.
  - F. After the second betting round, the players must either retain their pat hands or discard. The player may discard up to four (4) cards that are placed in the discard pile (any player electing not to draw in any round of draws still has the right to draw in subsequent rounds).
  - G. There is a third betting round following this second round of draws.
  - H. After the third betting round, the players must either retain their pat hands or discard. The player may discard up to four (4) cards that are placed in the discard pile.
  - I. There is a fourth betting round following this third round of draws, followed by showdown.
  - J. In Deuce to Seven (2-7) Triple Draw the lowest ranking hand wins the pot.
    - (i) The lowest ranking hand is a deuce, three, four, five and seven unsuited.
    - (ii) Aces are high only.
    - (iii) Straights and flushes must be counted as high.

