

“HOLIDAY WINE SHOP SALE” AT TULALIP RESORT CASINO OFFERS LIMITED-TIME SPECIALS ON EXCEPTIONAL WINE AND SPIRITS, NOVEMBER 21-22

POPULAR ONCE-A-YEAR SALE FOR VALUES ON FINE WINES, SPIRITS AND GIFTS

TULALIP, Wash. (November 10, 2022) – Just in time for entertaining and gift giving, Tulalip Resort Casino’s annual “Holiday Wine Shop Sale” returns November 21-22, spotlighting leading winemakers, top-shelf spirits and gift items. Staged at Tula Bene restaurant from 4 to 8 p.m. each day, the popular event features values on wines and spirits from across the U.S. and around the world, along with a special focus on Northwest wineries and distilleries.

When all you want is everything, this year’s sale will feature more than 100 hand-selected wines. It is an excellent opportunity for shoppers to purchase premium, hard-to-find selections for holiday gifts and stock their own cellars. The highly anticipated event features limited tastings and new and sought-after offerings each day.

“November is the perfect time to share these incredible pours, and the best way to find out what we are offering is to join us early for the best selection,” states Tulalip Resort Casino Sommelier Tom Thompson. He said the sale allows his staff to make room for new arrivals in the resort's cellar.

Thompson’s “picks” from the resort’s extensive wine and spirits program include highly limited offerings from Cayuse Vineyards and favorites from Alki, The Walls, Division Wines and others.

Other regional favorites include multiple vintages from Quilceda Creek Winery and great selections from Corliss Estate, Leonetti Cellar, Klipsan Vineyards, Cote Bonneville and more. Napa wines will be represented, joined by a limited availability of cult selections from Screaming Eagle Winery, Cakebread Cellars, Nickel & Nickel and Harlan Estate.

The sale also includes a limited selection of aged spirits including several of the most sought-after whiskeys on the market. Representing America’s cult distillers, the sale includes the Buffalo Trace Antique Collection (BTAC) Series, including Eagle Rare & WL Weller, and “must have” finds from Willett, Maker’s Mark, E.H. Taylor and Blanton’s.

Savvy “early bird” connoisseurs will also find an opportunity to purchase limited series luxury brands, rare Asian whiskies and fine tequilas.
