

The Tulalip Resort Casino Renovates Guest Rooms—Modern Design Accents Reflect Native Culture Taste of Tulalip 2016 Takes On A New Look

The AAA Four Diamond Tulalip Resort Casino is preparing to reveal a fresh new look with enhancements to its 360 luxury guest rooms and the addition of the Cascades Suite, which are designed to reflect the property's Coast Salish heritage and exemplify its distinction as one of the Northwest's premier luxury resorts. The multi-million dollar renovation will be fully completed in March of 2017 by a team of over 100 tradesmen. During the room makeover, the hotel, TSpa, banquets/catering and restaurants will be open for business as usual. Due to the substantial renovation, Taste of Tulalip will take on a new look for 2016.

Tulalip Resort Casino once again raises the bar with state-of-the-art guest room renovations designed by Interior Design International, which includes styling that pays homage to the rich history and heritage of the Tulalip Tribe. The 360 guest rooms feature deluxe king (500 square feet) or double queen (530 square feet) accommodations featuring a giant leap forward in design, technology, and grandeur.

Guests may very well fall in love with the well-appointed additions, including sumptuous touches, such as the stunning Native Coast Salish art worth over 1 million dollars, plush cushioning furniture with multilayered fabrics, rich color tones, woven wool carpeting, luxurious down bedding atop their custom made pillow top beds, high quality cotton bed linens, and a Coast Salish throw. Additional accents include oversized padded headboards, custom-made pendant sconces, LED reading lamps, and in room refrigerators. The bathroom is a haven of luxury accentuated with decorative resin door panels that guide guests into spacious bathrooms, with separate water closets, double sinks, red tiled backsplashes, grey and white Italian tile floors, bright white Penton Quartz countertops, tiled three-head body spray spa-like showers, and full makeup vanity.

In addition, the guest rooms will also receive new heating and cooling controls, USB power outlets, and new user friendly technology, including Bluetooth enabled media hubs, 55" OLED 4K Smart TVs, and a new instant access high-speed WIFI.

The Cascades Suite, also designed by Interior Design International, takes its name and inspiration from the mountain range to the east of Tulalip. The updated "Mid-century" furnishings envelop guests in comfort and style with posh, patterned fabrics and leather. The latest technology is sure to impress even the most discriminating techie — all in a design and look exclusive to the Cascades Suite.

The suite features a monolithic double-sided fireplace faced in quarried stone, solid Walnut flooring, a well outfitted granite-clad bar, unobstructed views of the North Cascades Mountain range via the floor-to-ceiling windows, 65" OLED 4K Smart TVs, digital art that literally comes alive on the living room wall, LED privacy glass throughout the bathroom, and a fiber-optic, "starlight" ceiling giving the experience of the great outdoors while still being inside. A separate bedroom that features a floating bed over a dry stone riverbed, which is dressed to the nines with a luxury plush euro pillow-top king size bed, exclusively made bed linens of the finest cotton, plush pillows, and cozy cloud like comforters by Portland Bed Manufacturing.

Custom blended eco-friendly bath amenities round out the Cascades Suite experience, including a trellised living wall and starlight ceiling, and river rock niche surrounding a deluxe soaking tub for two. Tulalip's award-winning glass enclosed spa-like shower features three adjustable body sprays, and the largest "rain" style shower-head available.

“This all new 1000 square foot specialty suite boasts a contemporary craftsman aesthetic that Frank Lloyd Wright himself would approve of—and then some,” states Sam Askew, Hotel GM.

Due to the extensive 2016 hotel room renovation, the grand Taste of Tulalip Weekend will take a hiatus, and with that the food and beverage team has been hard at work creating a plethora of sexy new events. They will be rolling out several fun, smaller Taste of Tulalip showstoppers throughout 2016, such as Pork and Pinot, Midsummers Night’s Dream, All Things Bubbly, and more, which will include top-of-the-line, cutting-edge food, wine, beer, and music.

Experience these well-appointed enhancements beginning the spring of 2016.
