“RED ROCKER” SAMMY HAGAR PERFORMS UNDER THE STARS AT TULALIP AMPHITHEATRE

Tulalip, Washington --- The "Red Rocker", Sammy Hagar, will be making a first, much anticipated appearance at the Tulalip Resort Casino Amphitheatre on Thursday, August 15. A multi-platinum, outgoing, bombastic front man of hard rock champions Van Halen, Hagar is a member in good standing of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. He will be releasing his first solo album in five years on September 24, 2013. Hagar has enlisted three legendary musicians - Toby Keith, Mickey Hart and Taj Mahal - to round out the final three tracks of the album to be titled: "Sammy Hagar and Friends."

Son of a steel worker and onetime professional boxer, Hagar burst on the scene as the lead vocalist of Montrose, whose "Rock Candy" has gone on to become a certified rock classic. After a string of eight solo albums, culminating with the million-sellers "Standing Hampton," "Three Lock Box" and "V.O.A.," and hundreds of sold out concert appearances across the country, Hagar joined Van Halen in 1985. He took the band to unprecedented heights, including four consecutive No. 1 albums.

Sammy also thrived as a solo artist, with his band the Waboritas, and returned to Van Halen to lead a triumphant 2004 reunion tour. He has played with a succession of genius guitar players, from Ronnie Montrose and Neal Schon, to Eddie Van Halen and Joe Satriani from his current group, Chickenfoot, which also features former Van Halen bassist Michael Anthony and Red Hot Chili Peppers drummer Chad Smith.

Following Hagar's concert, the rest of the summer line-up:
